Interviewer Manual — Recruitment Management System

Creator: Gigson Aquino

Before the interview

- Sign in using your assigned account.
- Open Interviews and review the interview assigned to you.
- Check the schedule and relevant job requirements through the approved recruitment contact.

After the interview

- Record the score (0–100), result (Pending, Passed, or Failed), completion status, and concise factual remarks.
- Record only information relevant to the job criteria. Avoid sensitive personal details and unsupported judgments.
- If an interview is rescheduled or cancelled, update its status and notify the recruiting contact through the organization's approved channel.

Access limits

Interviewers should only access interviews assigned to them. If the assignment is missing or incorrect, ask HR Staff or a Recruiter to correct it. Do not attempt to access another candidate's records by changing URLs or IDs.
